

Community Futures Middlesex

The Business Help Centre

Who We Are

The Community Futures Development Corporation (CFDC) of Middlesex County is a community-based, non-profit organization run by a board of local volunteers. The Corporation is staffed by business professionals who encourage entrepreneurship and the pursuit of economic opportunities.

Funding support for the corporation is realized through partnership with Industry Canada/FedDev.

As part of the Community Futures program, the Community Futures Development Corporation of Middlesex County provides the following programs:

Business Services

The experienced staff of the CFDC of Middlesex County understands small business and the local marketplace. They support local small businesses by providing no-cost business advice, counselling, planning assistance and referrals.

Term Loans

The CFDC of Middlesex County provides repayable term loans of up to $300,000 to qualifying new and existing companies located in Middlesex County (excluding the City of London).

A viable business plan is required, as is security, and a commitment to contributing to the local economy through the maintenance/creation of jobs.

Community Economic Development

Working closely with community organizations, the CFDC of Middlesex County looks to assess local challenges and come up with new ideas and opportunities that can strengthen the economy.

Taking into account the unique characteristics of Middlesex County, the CFDC assists in planning and implementing development strategies to build brighter futures for the community as a whole.
